Accommodation (Tours and Lyon)

According to your priorities, we can help you choose the type of accommodation that best suits your needs. Each one can be different but we recommend homestay accommodation as it is an excellent complement to your French course in France.

Homestay accommodation offers total immersion in the French language and culture, but if you prefer to be independent you can choose another type of accommodation, such as a hotel room or a studio. You can of course also book your accommodation yourself.
